The Honorable Denise Merrill
Secretary of State

Dear Madam Secretary:

I hereby return, without my signature, substitute House Bill 6689, An Act Concerning Bail Bonds. This bill would, among other things, automatically terminate a bond and release a surety when an accused voluntarily returns between five days and six months after a bond forfeiture order. This would undermine the efficient functioning of Connecticut's bail bond system and compromise the state's ability to assure that those facing criminal charges appear in court.

The objective of a bail bond is to ensure that an arrested person appears in court as required by that bond. Releasing a surety when an accused voluntarily returns within six months would render the court date conditioned in a bail bond effectively meaningless, giving arrested persons an additional six months to show up in court without consequence and as a matter of course.

For these reasons, I disapprove of substitute House Bill 6689, An Act Concerning Bail Bonds. Pursuant to Section 15 of Article Fourth of the Constitution of the State of Connecticut, I am returning substitute House Bill 6689 without my signature.

Sincerely,

Dannel P. Malloy
Governor

The Honorable Denise Merrill
Secretary of the State

Dear Madam Secretary:

I hereby return, without my signature, substitute House Bill 6509, An Act Concerning the Recommendations of the Connecticut Sentencing Commission Regarding the Membership of the Commission. This bill adds to the membership of the Commission, the co-chairpersons and ranking members of the joint standing committee on judiciary, or their designees chosen from the membership of the committee.

The Commission is defined in statute as a criminal justice agency and is distinct from commissions and task forces that are largely advisory in nature. As such, it would be inappropriate for legislators to sit on the Commission as full voting members. While I applaud the proponents' intention to familiarize the chairpersons and ranking members with the work of the Commission, this objective can be accomplished through regular meetings with such members or by the members' voluntary attendance at the Commission's public meetings.

For these reasons, I disapprove of substitute House Bill 6509, An Act Concerning the Recommendations of the Connecticut Sentencing Commission. Pursuant to Section 15 of Article Forth of the Constitution of the State of Connecticut, I am returning substitute House Bill 6509 without my signature.

Sincerely,

Dannel P. Malloy
Governor
