Form CT-656a Offer of Compromise

(Rev. 03/18)

Requirements

- Complete the entire application; do not leave any questions unanswered. Write the words No or None where applicable. Return the application with all required attachments to the Department of Revenue Services (DRS) at the address above.
- 2. If you cannot include all the requested information in the spaces provided on the application, attach additional sheets as appropriate.
- 3. Each applicant must provide copies of the following:
 - Last two federal income tax forms and returns filed with the Internal Revenue Service. Include all supporting schedules, forms W-2 or 1099, or any other attachments;
 - Current consumer credit report; and
 - · Last 2 employment pay stubs.
- 4. If you filed for bankruptcy within the past five years, provide a copy of the discharge notice.

Terms and Conditions

- 1. Upon receipt of your offer of compromise, DRS will either reject or conditionally accept your offer.
- 2. If DRS conditionally accepts your offer, final acceptance of your offer by DRS is conditioned on your full and complete satisfaction of the terms and conditions in Paragraph 8. If you fail to satisfy fully and completely these terms and conditions, your tax liability reverts to its original amount (prior to the conditional acceptance of your offer of compromise), and DRS may, without further notice, immediately take whatever steps necessary to collect the unpaid portion of your original tax liability.
- 3. DRS will reject your offer of compromise if at the time your offer is made:
 - You have not filed all required Connecticut tax returns;
 - You are being criminally prosecuted for a Connecticut tax liability; or
 - You have begun a voluntary bankruptcy case by filing a petition with the U.S. Bankruptcy Court under Title 11 of the U.S. Code, and another person has filed an involuntary bankruptcy case against you.
- 4. By submitting this offer, you are authorizing DRS, at its discretion, to obtain copies of your consumer credit reports for the purpose of evaluating this application before, during, and subsequent to any agreement.

- 5. While you are not required to submit a payment with your offer of compromise, any payment will be deposited by DRS and applied to your tax liability in accordance with Conn. Gen. Stat. §12-39h. Your payment will not be returned or refunded to you if you withdraw your offer or if your offer is rejected. The deposit by DRS of any payment you make does not constitute acceptance, conditional or otherwise, of your offer by DRS.
- 6. After your offer is conditionally accepted, but before you have paid the full amount of your offer, including any accrued interest, you will return to DRS, uncashed, any refund check issued to you and relating to a tax overpayment reported on any Connecticut tax return. The amount of the refund check will be applied to the amount of your offer.
- 7. By making your offer of compromise, you irrevocably and conclusively waive any and all rights and remedies you have to contest, in court or otherwise, your liability for the amount of your offer if your offer is conditionally accepted by DRS. If DRS rejects your offer or you withdraw your offer before it is rejected or conditionally accepted by DRS, you retain any rights and remedies, to the extent they have not lapsed or been exhausted, to contest your liability for the amount of your offer.
- 8. If DRS conditionally accepts your offer, then, upon your full and complete satisfaction of the terms in this paragraph, acceptance of your offer by DRS is final.
 - a. You pay the full amount of your offer and any accrued interest;
 - After your offer is conditionally accepted but before you have paid the full amount of your offer, including any accrued interest, you timely file all required Connecticut tax returns that become due;
 - c. After your offer is conditionally accepted but before you have paid the full amount of your offer, including any accrued interest, you do not begin a voluntary bankruptcy case by filing a petition with the U.S. Bankruptcy Court under Title 11 of the U.S. Code, and another person does not file an involuntary bankruptcy case against you; and
 - d. You have not misrepresented, with fraudulent intent, your ability to pay your original tax liability. If DRS determines you fraudulently misrepresented your ability to pay your original tax liability, your tax liability will revert to its original amount prior to the conditional acceptance of your offer.
