

Changes to the Prepaid Wireless E 9-1-1 Fee

Prepaid Wireless E 9-1-1 Fee Assessment:

Beginning on or after July 1, 2015, the Prepaid Wireless E 9-1-1 Fee is $0.51.

Each June, the Connecticut Public Utility Regulatory Authority (PURA) assesses a fee on telecommunications service subscribers, which also applies to prepaid wireless communications service.

Prepaid wireless telecommunications service is a wireless telephone service that a consumer pays for in advance, that allows access to the E 9-1-1 system by dialing 9-1-1, and that is sold in predetermined units or dollars that decline with use (sometimes called no contract plans).

Prepaid wireless telecommunications service includes prepaid wireless phone cards, recharge or refill authorization codes, and prepaid cell phones or other prepaid wireless devices preloaded with airtime minutes.

Prepaid wireless telecommunications service only includes wireless telecommunications services paid for in advance.

Prepaid wireless telecommunications service does not include calling cards, which are a prepaid method of making a long distance call where the card is used by calling a toll-free or local access number, entering a personal identification number (PIN), then entering the telephone number of the person to be called. Calling cards can be used from a landline telephone or from a wireless telephone (for example, in order to avoid roaming charges of the wireless telecommunications provider).

Example 1: A retailer sells a consumer a card that provides 200 minutes of prepaid wireless telecommunications service. The retailer collects the Prepaid Wireless E 9-1-1 Fee of $0.51 and remits the fee to the Department of Revenue Services (DRS).

Example 2: A retailer sells a consumer a calling card that provides 200 minutes of long distance communications service. The purchase is not subject to the Prepaid Wireless E 9-1-1 Fee and the retailer would not collect the Prepaid Wireless E 9-1-1 Fee of $0.51.

Example 3: A retailer sells a consumer a cell phone that comes loaded with 200 minutes of prepaid wireless telecommunications service. The retailer collects the Prepaid Wireless E 9-1-1 Fee of $0.51 and remits the fee to DRS.

Example 4: A retailer sells a consumer a cell phone with no units or minutes of prepaid wireless telecommunications service included. Because there is no purchase of prepaid wireless telecommunications service, the purchase of the cell phone is not subject to the Prepaid Wireless E 9-1-1 Fee and the retailer would not collect the Prepaid Wireless E 9-1-1 Fee of $0.51.

Example 5: A retailer sells a consumer a cell phone with unlimited wireless telecommunications service that is paid for in advance of use. Because the wireless service is unlimited but paid for in advance, the retailer collects the Prepaid Wireless E 9-1-1 Fee of $0.51 and remits the fee to DRS.

Wholesale Sales of Prepaid Wireless Telecommunications Service:

A retail transaction does not include the purchase of prepaid wireless telecommunications service from a retailer for resale by the purchaser. Retailers maintaining resale certificates for sales tax purposes are not required to obtain additional documents for purposes of documenting purchases for resale with regard to the Prepaid Wireless E 9-1-1 Fee.

Sales and Use Tax Exemptions Do Not Apply:

The exemptions from sales and use taxes listed in Conn. Gen. Stat. §12-412 do not apply to the Prepaid E 9-1-1 Wireless Fee. The Prepaid Wireless E 9-1-1 Fee must be charged on sales to charitable and religious organizations and governmental entities.

Effective Date: Effective for transactions occurring on and after July 1, 2015.

Statutory Authority: Conn. Gen. Stat. §§28-30a, 28-30b, 28-30d, 28-30e, and 28-30f.

Effect on Other Documents: Special Notice 2013(2), Changes to the Prepaid Wireless E 9-1-1 Fee, is modified and superseded.
