Notice of Meeting

Docket #FIC 2012-721

First Selectman, Town of Chaplin; and Town of Chaplin,

Respondent(s)

October 25, 2013

Transmittal of Proposed Final Decision

In accordance with Section 4-179 of the Connecticut General Statutes, the Freedom of Information Commission hereby transmits to you the proposed finding and decision prepared by the hearing officer in the above-captioned matter.

This will notify you that the Commission will consider this matter for disposition at its meeting which will be held in the Freedom of Information Commission Hearing Room, 18-20 Trinity Street, lst floor, Hartford, Connecticut, at 2 p.m. on Wednesday, November 13, 2013. At that time and place you will be allowed to offer oral argument concerning this proposed finding and order. Oral argument shall be limited to ten (10) minutes. For good cause shown, however, the Commission may increase the period of time for argument. A request for additional time must be made in writing and should be filed with the Commission ON OR BEFORE November 1, 2013. Such request MUST BE (1) copied to all parties, or if the parties are represented, to such representatives, and (2) include a notation indicating such notice to all parties or their representatives.

Although a brief or memorandum of law is not required, if you decide to submit such a document, an original and fourteen (14) copies must be filed ON OR BEFORE November 1, 2013. PLEASE NOTE: Any correspondence, brief or memorandum directed to the Commissioners by any party or representative of any party MUST BE (1) copied to all parties, or if the parties are represented, to such representatives, (2) include a notation indicating such notice to all parties or their representatives and (3) be limited to argument. NO NEW EVIDENCE MAY BE SUBMITTED.

If you have already filed a brief or memorandum with the hearing officer and wish to have that document distributed to each member of the Commission, it is requested that fourteen (14) copies be filed ON OR BEFORE November 1, 2013, and that notice be given to all parties or if the parties are represented, to their representatives, that such previously filed document is being submitted to the Commissioners for review.

By Order of the Freedom of Information Commission

FREEDOM OF INFORMATION COMMISSION OF THE STATE OF CONNECTICUT

In the Matter of a Complaint by

Report of Hearing Officer

William Jenkins,

Complainant

against

Docket #FIC 2012-721

First Selectman, Town of Chaplin; and Town of Chaplin,

Respondents

October 11, 2013

The above-captioned matter was heard as a contested case on June 5, 2013, at which time the complainant and the respondents appeared, stipulated to certain facts and presented testimony, exhibits and argument on the complaint. For purposes of hearing, the above captioned matter was consolidated with Docket #FIC 2012-726, William Jenkins v. First Selectman, Town of Chaplin; and Town of Chaplin.

After the hearing in this matter, the respondents filed one after-filed exhibit. The exhibit is marked as follows:

Respondents' Exhibit 6: Letter dated July 10, 2013 from the Town Attorney for the Town of Chaplin with attached July 9, 2013 affidavit of Karen A. O'Gorman, Assistant to the Town of Chaplin's First Selectman.

After consideration of the entire record, the following facts are found and conclusions of law are reached:

- 1. The respondents are public agencies within the meaning of §1-200(1), G.S.
- 2. It is found that, on or about September 19, 2012, and after the abrupt resignation of the respondents' Town Clerk, the Town of Chaplin's Board of Selectmen (the "board") began advertising that the Town of Chaplin was seeking to hire an interim acting Town Clerk to serve until the next town election.
- 3. It is found that there were six applicants for the town clerk position. It is also found that five applicants, including the complainant, were interviewed and submitted records supporting their applications for the town clerk position. It is further found that two board members interviewed five applicants, and that Shari-Lynn Smith was chosen for the position.

- 4. It is found that, by email dated November 21, 2012, the complainant requested that the respondent First Selectman provide him with copies of "any and all resumes of applicants that were the topic of discussion at the special Board of Selectman's [sic] meeting that was held on September 25, 2012" including any and all handwritten notes that were made by all members of the board at the September 25, 2012 and October 2, 2012 meetings (the "requested records").
- 5. It is found that, by email dated November 21, 2012, the respondent First Selectman's administrative assistant (the "assistant") acknowledged the complainant's requests.
- 6. It is found that the town attorney advised the respondents that disclosure of the requested records would constitute an invasion of personal privacy under §§1-200(6)(A) and 1-210(b)(2), G.S. It is also found that by separate letters dated November 28, 2012, the respondent First Selectman informed the five applicants who were interviewed that records concerning them were requested and that, pursuant to §1-214, G.S., each applicant could register his objection to the disclosure of such records by signing an attached statement and returning it to the First Selectman within the indicated timeframe.
- 7. It is found that, by letter dated November 29, 2012, the assistant informed the complainant that there are no handwritten notes of either selectman that was in attendance at the September 25, 2012 and October 2, 2012 board of selectmen meetings. It is also found that the assistant informed the complainant that he would receive a copy of the requested records of applicants who did not object to the disclosure of their records.
- 8. By letter dated and filed with the Commission on December 27, 2012, the complainant alleged that the respondents violated the FOI Act by denying his request for copies of the records described in paragraph 4, above. At the hearing on this matter, the complainant also requested the assessment of civil penalties against the respondents.
  - 9. Section 1-200(5), G.S., provides:

"Public records or files" means any recorded data or information relating to the conduct of the public's business prepared, owned, used, received or retained by a public agency, or to which a public agency is entitled to receive a copy by law or contract under section 1-218, whether such data or information be handwritten, typed, tape-recorded, printed, photostated, photographed or recorded by any other method.

10. Section 1-210(a), G.S., provides in relevant part that:

Except as otherwise provided by any federal law or state statute, all records maintained or kept on file by any public agency, whether or not such records are required by any law or by any rule or regulation, shall be public records and every person shall have the right to (1) inspect such records promptly during regular office or business hours . . . (3) receive a copy of such records in accordance with section 1-212.

- 11. Section 1-212(a), G.S., provides in relevant part that "any person applying in writing shall receive, promptly upon request, a plain, facsimile, electronic or certified copy of any public record."
- 12. It is found that the respondents do not maintain notes of the members of the board taken during the September and October meetings, as described in paragraph 4, above. Accordingly, it is concluded that the respondents did not violate the FOI Act by failing to provide such records to the complainant.
- 13. It is found that the respondents maintain the resumes requested in paragraph 4, above, and that such records are public records within the meaning of §§1-200(5), 1-210(a), and 1-212(a), G.S. Such records shall hereinafter be referred to as the requested records.
- 14. The respondents first contend that the position of town clerk is a public officer or employee within the meaning of §1-200(6)(A), G.S., and discussion concerning the appointment of such position is required to be held in executive session.
- 15. Section 1-225(a), G.S., provides in relevant part that "[t]he meetings of all public agencies, except executive sessions, as defined in subdivision (6) of section 1-200, shall be open to the public."
- 16. Section 1-200(6)(A), G.S., in relevant part defines executive session to mean "a meeting of a public agency at which the public is excluded for one or more of the following purposes: (A) Discussion concerning the appointment, employment, performance, evaluation, health or dismissal of a public officer or employee, provided that such individual may require that discussion be held at an open meeting ...."
- 17. It is found that on September 25, 2012 and October 2, 2012, the board held special meetings during which the First Selectman and a second member of the board interviewed candidates for the Town of Chaplin's vacant town clerk position.
- 18. It is found that only two members of the board and each applicant were present when both members conducted each interview for the town clerk position at the board's September 25, 2012 and October 2, 2012 special meetings. However, it is also found that, while members of the public were not present at the board's September 25, 2012 and October 2, 2012 special meetings, the board did not exclude the public from attending the interviews under §1-200(6)(A), G.S.

- 19. It is found, and the respondents' First Selectman credibly testified, that the interviews for the town clerk position were conducted in public and not in executive session. Moreover, even if the interviews had been conducted in executive session, that fact alone would not provide a basis to withhold the requested records.
- 20. The respondents also contend that §1-210(b)(2), G.S., exempts the requested records.
- 21. Section 1-210(b)(2), G.S., provides in relevant part that nothing in the FOI Act shall require disclosure of "... personnel or medical files and similar files the disclosure of which would constitute an invasion of personal privacy ...."
- 22. The Supreme Court set forth the test for the exemption contained in §1-210(b)(2), G.S., in Perkins v. Freedom of Information Commission, 228 Conn. 158, 175 (1993). The claimant must first establish that the files in question are personnel, medical or similar files. Second, the claimant must show that disclosure of the records would constitute an invasion of personal privacy. In determining whether disclosure would constitute an invasion of personal privacy, the claimant must establish both of two elements: first, that the information sought does not pertain to legitimate matters of public concern, and second, that such information is highly offensive to a reasonable person. The Commission takes administrative notice of the multitude of court rulings, Commission final decisions (Endnote 1), and instances of advice given by the Commission and staff members (Endnote 2), which have relied upon the Perkins test, since its release in 1993.

23. Section 1-214, G.S., provides in relevant part that:

- (b) Whenever a public agency receives a request to inspect or copy records contained in any of its employees' personnel or medical files and similar files and the agency reasonably believes that the disclosure of such records would legally constitute an invasion of privacy, the agency shall immediately notify in writing (1) each employee concerned, provided such notice shall not be required to be in writing where impractical due to the large number of employees concerned and (2) the collective bargaining representative, if any, of each employee concerned. Nothing herein shall require an agency to withhold from disclosure the contents of personnel or medical files and similar files when it does not reasonably believe that such disclosure would legally constitute an invasion of personal privacy.
- (c) A public agency which has provided notice under subsection (b) of this section shall disclose the records requested unless it receives a written objection from the employee concerned or the employee's collective bargaining representative, if any, within seven business days from the receipt by the employee or such collective bargaining representative of the notice or, if there is no evidence of receipt of written notice, not later than nine business days from the date the notice is actually mailed, sent, posted or otherwise given. Each objection filed under this subsection shall be on a form prescribed by the public agency, which shall consist of a statement to be signed by the employee or the employee's collective bargaining representative, under the penalties of false statement, that to the best of his knowledge, information and belief there is good ground to support it and that the object is not interposed for delay. Upon the filing of an objection as provided in this subsection, the agency shall not disclose the requested records unless ordered to do so by the Freedom of Information Commission pursuant to section 1-206.

- 24. It is found that three of the five applicants, including the current town clerk, timely registered written objections to the disclosure of records they submitted to the respondents for the town clerk position. It is also found that the complainant and one other applicant did not respond with an objection to disclosure of records they submitted for the town clerk position.
- 25. On July 12, 2013, the Hearing Officer ordered the respondents to submit copies of the requested records to the Commission for in camera inspection, and on August 16, 2013, the respondents complied with such order. It is found that the in camera records are submissions made to the Town of Chaplin by three of the five applicants interviewed for appointment to the position of town clerk, consisting of 15 pages. The in camera records shall be identified herein as IC 2012-721-01 through 2012-721-15 (the "in camera records"). On the in camera index form submitted with the requested records, the respondents maintained their contention that the in camera records are exempt from disclosure under §§1-200(6)(A), 1-210(b)(2), and 1-214, G.S.
- 26. After a careful review of the in camera records, it is found that IC 2012-721-08 through IC 2012-721-15, the portion of the in camera records pertaining to the current town clerk, Shari-Lynn Smith, constitute "personnel" files within the meaning of §1-210(b)(2), G.S. It is also found that the remaining portions of the requested records pertaining to persons who were interviewed, but not hired for the town clerk position, identified as IC 2012-721-01 through IC 2012-721-07, constitute "personnel" or "similar" files within the meaning of §1-210(b)(2), G.S.
- 27. Upon careful review of the in camera records, it is found that such records pertain to the qualifications of the applicants for the position of town clerk.

- 28. It is therefore concluded that the in camera records pertain to legitimate matters of public concern.
- 29. It is found that the respondents made every attempt to keep the in camera records confidential as a matter of policy. However, in Kureczka v. Freedom of Information Commission, 228 Conn. 271, 277 (1994), the Supreme Court ruled that "the Commission cannot be barred from ordering disclosure of information that it has otherwise properly found not to constitute an invasion of privacy simply because of the erroneous determination by a government agency that such information should be confidential and its representations to that effect."
- 30. Upon careful review of the in camera records, it is concluded that disclosure of such records would not be highly offensive to a reasonable person, within the meaning of Perkins, supra.
- 31. It is therefore concluded that disclosure of the in camera records would not be an invasion of personal privacy within the meaning of Perkins, supra, and that such records are not exempt from disclosure under §1-210(b)(2), G.S.
- 32. With respect to the portions of the requested records pertaining to the complainant and the other applicant who did not object to the disclosure of records submitted for the town clerk position, it is found that the assistant placed a copy of all records in possession of the respondents pertaining to the applicant who did not object to disclosure of her records, in the complainant's inbox located at the Town Hall of Chaplin. It is also found that the assistant has delivered correspondence to the complainant in this manner on prior occasions. It is further found that the assistant did not give the complainant a copy of his applicant records since she believed that the complainant already had such records in his possession.
- 33. Nevertheless, it is found that the complainant did not receive the records that were placed in his inbox.
- 34. It is concluded that the respondents violated the disclosure provisions of §1-210(a), G.S., by failing to provide the complainant with copies of the requested records described in paragraph 13, above, as alleged by the complainant.
- 35. Based on the facts and circumstances in this case, the Commission declines to consider the complainant's request for civil penalties against the respondents.

The following order by the Commission is hereby recommended on the basis of the record concerning the above-captioned complaint:

- 1. Forthwith, the respondents shall provide a copy of the requested records described in paragraph 13 of the findings, above, free of charge.
- 2. Henceforth, the respondents shall strictly comply with the provisions of $1-210(a) and 1-212(a), G.S.

2. ENDNOTES

AFFIDAVIT OF ERIC V. TURNER

Eric V. Turner, having been duly sworn, does hereby depose as follows:

- 1. I am over the age of eighteen (18) years and understand the obligation of an affirmation.
- 2. I am a member of the Connecticut Bar and am currently employed as Director of Public Education for the Connecticut Freedom of Information Commission, having first been employed by said commission in 1996.
- 3. I am providing this affidavit in light of the Supreme Court decision in Director, Retirement & Benefits Services Division v. Freedom of Information Commission, 256 Conn. 764 (2001), in which the court apparently invites a reconsideration of Perkins v. Freedom of Information Commission, 228 Conn. 158 (1993). See, Director, supra at 782, fn 13, 785 (Zarella, J. concurring).
- 4. As part of my responsibilities as Director of Public Education for said commission, I have developed, organized and scheduled speaking engagements, seminars and programs explaining the duties and rights established under the Connecticut Freedom of Information Act.
- 5. Since I assumed my current position in 1996, there have been approximately 290 such speaking engagements, seminars and programs in Connecticut and I have personally lectured in approximately 80 such speaking engagements, seminars and programs.
- 6. As part of the presentation I have prepared for such speaking engagements, seminars and programs, the subject of the Connecticut General Statues Section 1-210(b)(2) exemption for personnel, medical and similar files the disclosure of which would constitute an invasion of personal privacy is stressed because of the great interest in that exemption and the confusion generated by a series of inconsistent and contradictory court decisions prior to Perkins, supra. See, e.g., Chairman v. Freedom of Information Commission, 217 Conn. 193 (1991) (establishing "reasonable expectation of privacy" test; query whether subjectively or objectively applied) and Board of Education v. Freedom of Information Commission, 210 Conn. 590 (1989) (confirming a "balancing" test), which was overruled by the Chairman case.
- 7. Since the Supreme Court ruling in Perkins, supra, all Freedom of Information Commission staff members who conduct such speaking engagements, seminars and programs discuss in detail the rulings in that case and its progeny.

- 8. As part of my responsibilities as Director of Public Education, I also answer telephone and other inquiries from public officials and the public. Since my employment with said commission, I have answered thousands of such inquiries, including hundreds of inquiries concerning the Connecticut General Statutes Section 1-210(b)(2) exemption. In responding to such inquiries I discuss in detail the Perkins case and its progeny.
- 9. Based on the foregoing experiences, it is my opinion that the Perkins decision, and its progeny, have had a beneficial effect on public officials and the public itself because they can rely on a now long-standing and clear test with respect to the Connecticut General Statutes Section 1-210(b)(2) exemption, which helps them determine whether that exemption is applicable to the practical problems they encounter with respect to personnel, medical and similar information. Indeed, the many court and Freedom of Information Commission decisions applying the Perkins test have given public officials and the public a now consistent body of law concerning that statutory exemption.
