FINAL DECISION AND ORDER

SUMMARY:

This hearing was requested on June 30, and a prehearing conference was held on July 12. The Board submitted exhibits, including the Student's most recent IEP and the Student's progress reports and evaluations. On July 15, the Parents' attorney indicated that there was outstanding evaluative information about the Student which could be of assistance in resolving the case, and indicated that Parents would not proceed with the hearing at this time.

FINAL DECISION AND ORDER:

The matter is DISMISSED, without prejudice.
