ISSUES

- I. Whether the child's IEP provides for an appropriate level of support?

PROCEDURAL HISTORY

The Parent requested a due process hearing December 6, 2007. At a prehearing conference the parties agreed to meet to attempt to resolve their dispute. The local education agency reports on behalf of the parent an agreement has resolved the outstanding issues between them. The Parent did not object. The parties reached agreement prior to the date for mailing the final decision of February 19, 2008. The matter is dismissed without prejudice.

FINAL DECISION AND ORDER

1. The case is dismissed without prejudice.
