SECRETARY MERRILL TO JOIN THE WOMEN'S MARCH ON NYC

Hartford: Connecticut Secretary of the State Denise Merrill said, “Whether we are on the streets of Washington D.C., New York or Hartford, I believe that it is time to be heard about the issues that define us as a country. We must be forceful in defense of women, immigrants, education, the healthcare of all Americans and so many other precious rights we hold dear. For my part, I will be accepting an invitation from Eleanor’s Legacy to join the march in New York City on Saturday. As much as the inauguration is a pivotal historical event, the right to dissent is equally relevant at this moment in history.”
